

PRESERVING ORGANIZATION COLLECTIONS WORKSHOP

Organization records not only document an organization's work – they also tell the story of our community, our people, our successes and the issues we believe to be important. Learn how to manage, care for and preserve your organization's records and memorabilia.

Presented by eFIL: Filipino Digital Archives and History Center of Hawai'i:

Gina Vergara-Bautista

Archivist, Hawai'i State Archives

Clement Bautista

Director, UHM Office of Multicultural Student Services

Saturday, January 12, 2013
10:00 a.m. – 12 noon
Hawai'i Plantation Village
Social/Union Hall
94-695 Waipahu Street

Admission is free and open to the public, however seating is limited.
RSVP by calling 228-6345 or sending email to: fahsoh808@gmail.com.

